

Terms of Reference and Constitution of the North Hertfordshire Community Safety Responsible Authorities Group (NHRAG)

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Responsible Authorities Group (RAG or "Group") represents the strategic and tasking arm of the North Hertfordshire Community Safety Partnership (NHCSP), an inter-agency collaboration to reduce local crime and anti-social behaviour. It acts as a Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnership (CDRP) as defined (and required) by the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 as amended. Its members work collectively within their own individual legal and constitutional frameworks to deliver a shared vision for the management of local crime and disorder.
- 1.2 The geographical limits of responsibility for the Responsible Authorities Group are coterminous with the administrative boundaries of North Hertfordshire District Council.

2. Status of the Responsible Authorities Group and/or scrutinise decisions made, or other action taken, in connection with the community safety function. This may, in practice, necessitate the attendance of representatives of relevant partner agencies before North Hertfordshire District Council's Overview and Scrutiny Committee to give evidence in connection with the management of local crime and disorder.

- 3.3 The Responsible Authorities Group has a responsibility to ensure that its actions, and those of its constituent members, are responsive to local need.
